Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Homecoming is Saturday, November 12, and finalists for Homecoming king and queen have been selected by SWOSU students.

Queen candidate finalists are Aminatou Mouliom, Tulsa; Caylie Patton, Tecumseh; and Haley Davis, Lookeba. King candidate finalists are Elijah Tedder, Marlow; Fletcher Reed, Hobart; and Tanner Misak, Medford.

The finalists were selected by an online student vote. The finalists will interview with a panel of students, faculty and administrators as the final determination for homecoming queen and king. The winners will be announced at halftime of the football game that kicks off at 5:30 p.m. at Milam Stadium on the SWOSU campus.

Mouliom is a pharmacy major and is sponsored by the Collegiate Activities Board. Patton is majoring in communications and is sponsored by Sigma Sigma Chi. Davis is a special education major and is being sponsored by Eta Iota Sigma.

Tedder is a health science major and is sponsored by Phi Delta Theta. Reed is majoring in health, physical education major and is being sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon. Misak is majoring in exercise science and is being sponsored by New Student Orientation.
